

We do have a war only with those that rape, murder and burn our people

written by Ruth Wasserman Lande | 05.10.2024

Ruth Wasserman Lande: The Republic of Iran has created a “wall of fire” surrounding Israel by funding, training, and inciting proxies instead of engaging in direct warfare.

We are at war only with those who commit atrocities such as rape, murder, and burning our people—like Hamas did from Gaza, entering our territory unprovoked and committing mass murder. Hezbollah, too, has been planning to carry out similar attacks. They have specific plans to do exactly the same, which is the sole reason why our soldiers have entered Lebanon: to dismantle their tunnels.

Israel has been preparing for this eventuality for long time

written by Brig. Gen. (res.) Yossi Kuperwasser | 05.10.2024

Brig. Gen. (res.) Yossi Kuperwasser: We have been preparing ourselves for this eventuality for a long time...we have also equipped ourselves with a lot of certified airplane.” On the other hand, Professor Scott Lucas said, “The reason why Israel and its allies were so active in preventing severe casualties is that Iran notified Arab countries that the attack was coming.

Israel must exercise its full right of self-defense

written by Arsen Ostrovsky | 05.10.2024

Arsen Ostrovsky: What we saw yesterday by Iran was an unprecedented act of war against the State of Israel, that will not go unanswered. The Iranian regime has not been a passive actor, but directly fueling this conflict, including by their support of proxy terror groups Hamas, Hezbollah and Houthis, and now again directly firing ballistic missiles. Israel has been put in an intolerable situation, and like any sovereign nation, must exercise its full right of self-defense.

Is there a real threat of Iran getting directly involved in this war?

written by Brig. Gen. (res.) Yossi Kuperwasser | 05.10.2024

Brig. Gen. (res.) Yossi Kuperwasser: Unfortunately, the Iranians feel compelled to intervene, taking significant risks in the process and putting us at risk as well. This is yet another example of how dangerous the regime in Iran truly is. I believe the goal should be to make Iran and its allies in the Middle East understand that they cannot win a war against Israel and that the price they are paying is exceedingly high. For this reason, they should cease their attempts to initiate conflicts against Israel.

The right of Israeli civilians to return home safely

written by Ruth Wasserman Lande | 05.10.2024

Ruth Wasserman Lande: First, the 60,000 to 70,000 Israeli civilians have the right to return to their homes and live without the fear of the Radwan forces, similar to the way Hamas operated in the south.

Surprisingly, the moment a sovereign and independent state like Israel—despite being a democracy—finally responded after exercising tremendous restraint for 11 months, the notion of a ceasefire suddenly emerged. It's truly astounding.

The elimination of Nasrallah was entirely in accordance with international law

written by Arsen Ostrovsky | 05.10.2024

Arsen Ostrovsky: The elimination of Hezbollah terrorist leader Hassan Nasrallah, was entirely in accordance with international law, incl. Israel's right to self defense. We have to remember it was Hezbollah that initiated this wave of rocket bombardment since Oct 8. The situation was intolerable and Israel had every right to respond.

India wouldn't tolerate this and nor should Israel

written by Arsen Ostrovsky | 05.10.2024

Arsen Ostrovsky: "In the last 48 hours, approx. 1/4 of Israel's population was in bomb shelters after relentless Hezbollah rocket fire for 11.5 months. That is equivalent of 400 million people in India! India wouldn't tolerate this and nor should Israel."
