

Hamas' uncompromising demands

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 13.06.2024

A closer look at Hamas' five key demands in the hostage release negotiations reveals its broader aspirations for consolidating power and influence.

Biden's deceptive hostage deal threatens Israel's existence

written by Asher Fredman | 13.06.2024

If the fighting stops with Hamas in power, the 'day after' will never begin. We will simply return to October 6. Only this time, with zero deterrence.

To end Hamas, the IDF must temporarily control Gaza

written by Col. (res.) Prof. Gabi Siboni | 13.06.2024

While the IDF is still destroying Hamas's military capabilities, there is no non-Hamas affiliated entity willing to accept civilian control of the Gaza Strip. Only the IDF can do this.

Israel must uproot all ideas of repeat of Oct. 7 in Judea and Samaria

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 13.06.2024

Even if terror groups in Judea and Samaria seem far from mimicking that attack, the very intention to emulate Hamas' pattern must be viewed with utmost seriousness.

Hamas bears ultimate responsibility for Rafah

written by Arsen Ostrovsky | 13.06.2024

The West's failure to acknowledge this, only perpetuates the violence and emboldens Hamas.

Palestinian state recognition and ICJ proceedings are a prize for Hamas

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 13.06.2024

Israel will need to do everything it is currently doing for its security without compromises, and rely only on itself.

Israel's dangerous trap: Why Biden's day-after proposals will only bolster Hamas

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 13.06.2024

Israel did not enter this war to find a replacement for Hamas but to destroy it. That is the goal, not the means.

The only way to end the war is to let Israel win

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 13.06.2024

The Biden administration has yet to provide a realistic alternative plan that could achieve the goals of the war without having Israel enter Rafah.

The closure of Al Jazeera was justified

written by Dr. Adi Schwartz | 13.06.2024

Israel shut down Al Jazeera's operations in the country and seized some of its communication equipment Sunday, prompting condemnation from the United Nations and rights groups over alleged moves by the government to restrict press freedoms.

Dr. Adi Schwartz told KAN's Mark Weiss that the closure of Al Jazeera was justified. 5.5.2024.

<https://youtu.be/Rnrr149377g>

Kerem Shalom attack proves Rafah action is necessary

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 13.06.2024

The barrage reflects Hamas' self-confidence and its benefiting from the Biden administration, who's tying Israel's hands.