

An open letter to President Biden: Stop turning a blind eye to terror

written by Ruth Wasserman Lande | 19.04.2024

Destiny has placed you, at this particular time, in a position of power and at the helm. You currently hold the reins on the stability of our region and the protection of Western values.

A multi-theater reality has emerged; Israel faces a test

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 19.04.2024

Israel's first objective is to prevent attacks and demolish terrorist networks, of any kind and from any element. Above all else, topping the list of Israel's foreign policy objectives is cementing and strengthening relations with the US.

Whitewashing Qatar

written by David M. Weinberg | 19.04.2024

Qatar is a dangerous and disingenuous actor which falsely presents itself as an honest broker and a friend of the West, even of Israel. It is unfortunate that an Israeli newspaper fell hook, line, and sinker for Qatar's fairytale of moderation.

Iran's attack gives Biden a chance to shore up his credibility

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 19.04.2024

Against the backdrop of Iran's Ukraine war involvement and partnership in the anti-US, anti-West axis, there lies an opening for the US to restore its stature in the Middle East, strengthen the pro-Western front, and impact the global order.

The Psychological Foundations of Palestinian Society Remain Rigid

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 19.04.2024

The implications of Khalil Shikaki's March 2024 Poll Results.

Only a Strong Israel is a US Strategic Asset

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 19.04.2024

Destroying Hamas's governing and military systems will affirm Israel's strategic asset value in the eyes of the US and other partners in the region. Despite international pressures, Israel must act decisively to achieve its war goals.

Targeting the "head of the octopus"

written by David M. Weinberg | 19.04.2024

The tectonic threat of Iran to Mideast and global stability must be countered head-on.

Iran the puppet master must be held accountable

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 19.04.2024

This is a war over global and regional order, against the radical axis that seeks to annihilate Israel and weaken Western influence.

The big chill sets in, once again

written by David M. Weinberg | 19.04.2024

Israel must resist America's fantasy framework for a swift, dangerously indecisive, end to the Gaza war.

Hamas should pay a price for its rejection of a hostages deal

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 19.04.2024

Its leadership should be expelled from Qatar.
