

Strategic Blindness

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 15.02.2024

A sure-fire recipe for regional disaster is the American drive for Palestinian statehood and a Fatah-led government in Gaza.

Reflecting on Israel-Egypt relations

written by Ruth Wasserman Lande | 15.02.2024

This strategic dialogue with Egypt must be institutionalized, with very senior representation on behalf of the Israeli government, accompanied with experts on Arab culture and language.

Without total victory there can be no new regional order

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 15.02.2024

Despite Washington's preferences for a swift end to the war, Israel must restore its deterrent posture by hitting hard at Hamas, Hezbollah, and Iran.

Hamas seeks to survive Israel's offensive and shatter Israel's image as "invincible"

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 15.02.2024

Israel must resume fighting after any ceasefire, otherwise a Hamas victory narrative will emerge.

The International Courts: Not a Legal Problem, but a Strategic Diplomatic-Security Challenge

written by Dr. Raphael Bitton | 15.02.2024

The international law assault against Israel aims to restrict Israel's right to self-defense, without authority or justification. All cooperation with any of the international courts therefore must end.

Time to target Hamas leadership around the world

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 15.02.2024

Israel and its allies must methodically eliminate Hamas commanders beyond Gaza so that the organization loses all regional influence.

Hamas's War of Numbers: A Strategy of Exaggeration and Dissimulation

written by Prof. Kobi Michael | 15.02.2024

Hamas has perfected a psychological warfare strategy involving exaggeration and dissimulation regarding "victims." The truth is that this war has a low ratio of civilian casualties in comparison to other wars in recent decades, and the IDF is successfully crushing Hamas with minimal harm to Gaza's civilian population.

An upbeat and believing younger generation

written by David M. Weinberg | 15.02.2024

Israel's future is guaranteed by gutsy and patriotic teens, soldiers, and students.

Intensify the military pressure on Hamas

written by Meir Ben Shabbat | 15.02.2024

Israel's war goals must be achieved more swiftly through overwhelming force, and the Israeli public must stand firm in support of the IDF.

Pessimism on Steroids

written by Col. (res.) Prof. Gabi Siboni | 15.02.2024

The “Downer Movement” is depressing Israel with defeatism, while Israel’s youth is energized with faith in the future.
