

Israel must exercise its full right of self-defense

written by Arsen Ostrovsky | 02.10.2024

Arsen Ostrovsky: What we saw yesterday by Iran was an unprecedented act of war against the State of Israel, that will not go unanswered. The Iranian regime has not been a passive actor, but directly fueling this conflict, including by their support of proxy terror groups Hamas, Hezbollah and Houthis, and now again directly firing ballistic missiles. Israel has been put in an intolerable situation, and like any sovereign nation, must exercise its full right of self-defense.

The full interview took place on CNN18 News India, october 1, 2024.